

Suez Canal: What else for global shippers?

Webinar

30 April, 2021

DISCLAIMER

The webinar is provided for informational purposes only. This webinar and the information provided by it are not directed to any intended for distribution or use by any person, company and /or entity. The information presented by this webinar is collected, maintained and provided purely for the convenience of the participants. We have made every attempt to ensure that the information presented in the course of this webinar has been obtained from reliable sources. However, GSA, its members, and staff are not responsible for any errors, decisions or omissions relating to the information provided in the course of the webinar. The information presented in the course of this webinar has been incorporated in good faith and is only for general purposes. Any and all information provided in the course of the webinar should not be relied upon for any specific purpose and no representation or warranty is given for its accuracy or completeness.

PROGRAMME

WELCOME

- Jordi Espín, Strategic Relations Manager, European Shippers' Council

OPENING

- Denis Choumert, Chairman, Global Shippers' Alliance

KEYNOTE

- Suez impact: current situation in the maritime supply chain
Jan Hoffmann, Chief, Trade Logistics Branch DTL at UNCTAD

KEYNOTE

- Is the Suez situation over? And what does "over" actually mean?
Lars Jensen, CEO & Partner at Sea Intelligence Consulting

PROGRAMME

REGULATION & LEGAL FRAMEWORK

- Suez consequences : the unbalanced framework for shippers
Rosa Romero, Partner, Attorney at Law the Lawyer's House
- The Suez situation & competition issues
Dr. Konstantinos Adamantopoulos, Partner, Attorney at Law KA Legal
- Collective Claim, Competition; options
Dr. Till Schreiber, Managing Director, Partner CDC Cartel Damage Claims

Q & A

- Jordi Espín, Strategic Relations Manager, European Shippers' Council